SHELBY SENIOR

Shelby High School was built in 1924 on lots which formerly belonged to The Shelby Salesbook Company. The school's intended capacity of four hundred has been increased by the "L" wing added in 1939, and by the vocational agriculture and music annex added in 1951.

HIGH SCHOOL

Due to the heavy increase in high school population, Shelby School District voters approved a school bond issue in the general election on November 6, 1962. As a result, we look forward to the construction of a new Senior High School in the near future, and the renovation of the school shown above to accommodate the junior high school students.

THE TYPING ROOM, 206, is one of the busiest places at SHS, anytime you might happen to walk in through either door. It is supplied with nearly 45 typewriters, 11 of which are electric. Room 206 also doubles for the office practice class, shown here. Tri-Hi-Y headquarters and bulletin board are located at the south end.

The western-end DOWNSTAIRS (near the biology room) is usualy congested after all periods and particularly the fifth period. Seniors coming from English, Juniors going to the first floor, Sophomores struggling into the biology room, and Freshmen literally getting squeezed into the walls make an interesting scene of mass confusion.

Turning the GYM into a 120-seat study hall was an immediate result of the increased 1962-1963 enrollment. For various reasons the gym is not as effective as a regular study hall would be, but we hope the students can help solve these details themselves in the future. This year the gym study halls had the privilege of library use either first or second half of the period.

We have one of the finest wood and metal shops in the Northern Ohio area. Year after year Shelby sends fine examples of workmanship to the local contests. Safety is the watchword to both boys and teachers.

THE JUNIOR CLASS PROM FOR 1962—

Perhaps the decorations were too much and a larger handkerchief was needed.

The Theme "My Blue Heaven"

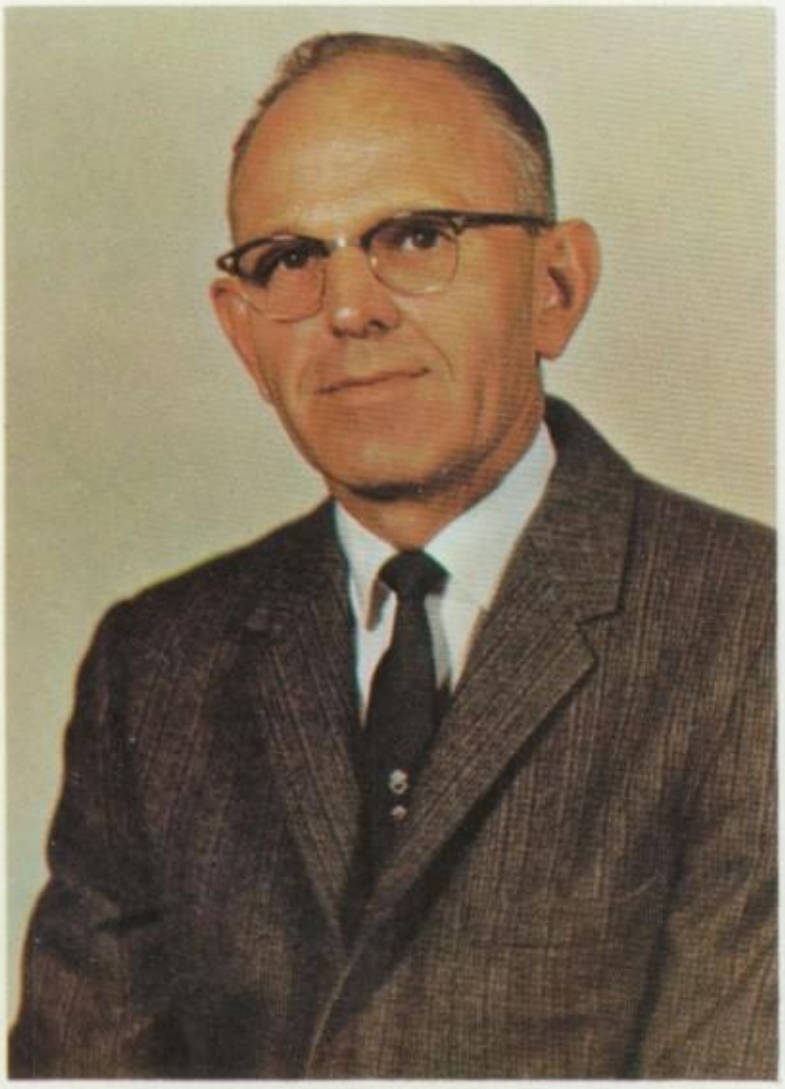
DEDICATION

We, the editors of the SCARLET S, would like to honor two men who are held in high respect by the faculty and the student body. We would like to honor MR. HOWARD M. PLOCHER and MR. HAROLD MARKIN.

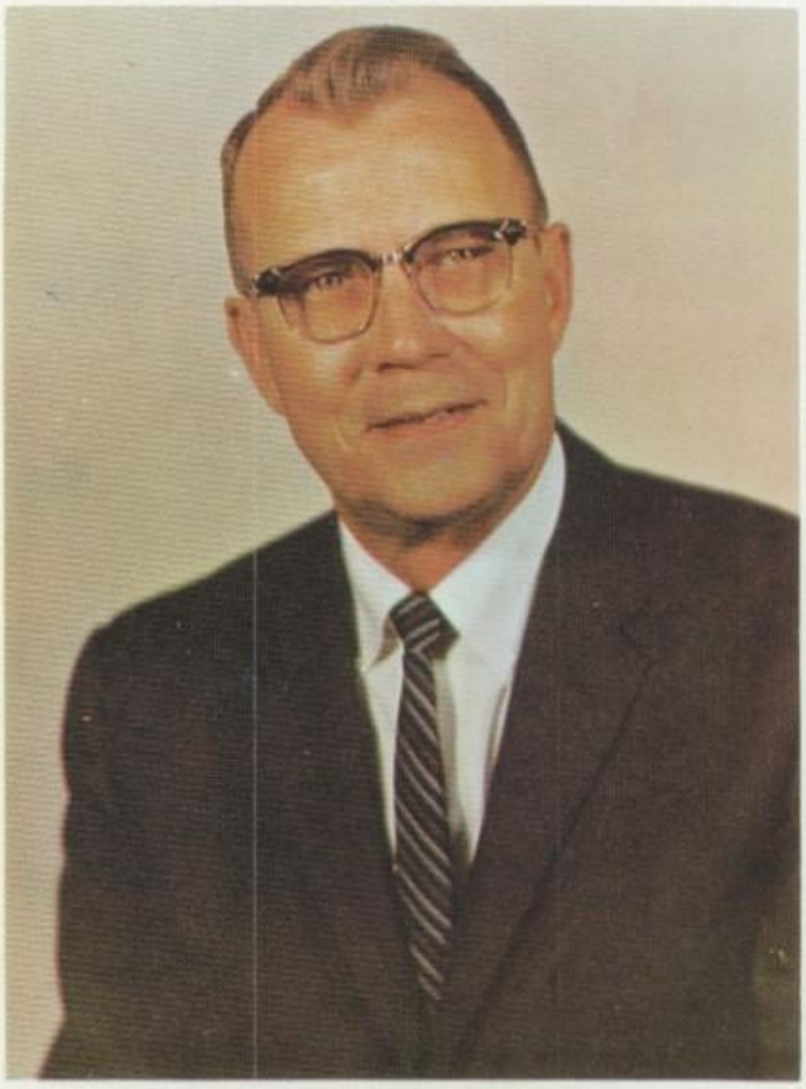


MR. HOWARD M. PLOCHER

During the past seventeen years at Shelby through conscientious and diligent efforts Mr. Plocher has helped mold many present business executives, secretaries, and office personnel.

In addition to his teaching duties, Mr. Plocher is also "keeper" of the books. He has charge of the special funds for the many clubs and organizations of the school.

We express our thanks in making you one of the two to whom our annual is dedicated.



MR. HAROLD MARKIN

Mr. Harold Markin has taught at Shelby for the past nineteen years. Through his subjects he has imparted to us a needed insight into our way of life.

His command of the classroom as well as his subtle humor and impartiality are recognized and appreciated by his students.

As faculty manager for athletic events he has capably arranged the athletic schedules and secured the officials for all the games. For your understanding and your diligence in planning many events for us, we express our appreciation by making you a co-recipient of the dedication of this book.

Volleyball, basketball, track, softball, tumbling, and other individual sports have made up this year's program.

Two teams, a varsity and reserve, have competed with other area schools in volleyball and basketball.

Each member tries to attain a set number of points by the end of the year. These points are earned by participating in various individual sports.

The goals of each G.A.A. member are to achieve confidence, leadership, good sportsmanship, and to become a better person by working for the good of others.

Michael Johnson was public service director for his city; Jeffra Bricker was named a city treasurer; Malcolm McKinney was attorney at Boys' State Bank and Vice-President of Greed Bonding Company; Richard Landis was city engineer and delegate to county convention.

Six girls represented the school and the city at the conclave known as Buckeye Girls' State held for eight days on the campus of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

The offices held by the Shelby girls were: Garnet Steel was civil defense director of "Horton County"; Nancy Simon was public safety service director; Christine Straw was councilwoman for "Oakley City"; Anne Lafferty was press secretary for the governor; Martha Keil was director of finance and taxation in the Governor's cabinet; and Mary Ellen May was the municipal judge of "Bacon City."

These meetings combined with inter-club rallies are the main force of Youth for Christ work. Since the students actually run the club, leadership qualities are developed and talent is utilized. The Future Farmers of America is an organization, made up of young men from all four grades in the high school. Each year the different classes go on a trip. The freshmen go to Detroit, and the sophomores attend the International Live Stock Show in Chicago. The juniors go to Washington, D. C., and the seniors may choose wherever they wish to go. Here at school, in the F.F.A. shop, the boys prepare for things such as the state and county fair. Usually about ninety per cent of the boys take projects to the county fair while about ten per cent take their projects to the state fair.

Team-mates

Much as the Whippet designates Shelby High's Athletic teamwork, the symbol above represents insurance teamwork. More than 1400 independent agents represent the "Shelby" in 28 states east of the Mississippi. Working together we provide protection and security—at a savings.

Our agents are independent businessmen whose livelihood depends on their ability to "tailor" insurance protection to the individual need. The "Shelby Mutual" is not the only company they represent. They place their clients' business with the insurer offering the best protection at lowest cost. To keep up with their demands the "Shelby" continues to expand, providing the protection and savings good risks deserve.

We'd love to Parade for the Class of '63

A big parade with drums and cymbals would show just how proud we are of the fine young men and women graduating in the Class of 1963.

As a member of the community, Ohio Seamless joins your parents and friends in wishing you happiness and success.
